ORGANEXA

Public investment brief

A Saudi industrial project for beauty and personal care

ORGANEXA is a project in development combining formulation, manufacturing and brands in cosmetics and personal care.

Business drivers

Formulation development and prototype testing.
Manufacturing and filling for partner brands.
Product development for ORGANEXA brands.

Participation and partnerships

Contact Investor Relations to explore participation and partnership opportunities and discuss the investment scope and approved documentation available for review.

Development roadmap and information access

Proposed development roadmap

Establishment and planning, funding and partnerships, construction and preparation, then operations and expansion. These are planned phases whose status is updated following management approval.

Feasibility and indicators

Approved financial indicators and assumptions are available on the website and in authorized documents. Forecasts are estimates subject to investor assessment.

Investor data room

Detailed documents are available to eligible investors through the investor portal, subject to access permissions and confidentiality requirements.

Next step

Explore the investment opportunity and roadmap, then contact Investor Relations through the website to discuss the next step.

Note

This is a public project introduction. Management must approve detailed terms, figures and documents before any investment commitment.